

Lockdown Activities-Term 4 Week 2

World Book Day Scavenger Hunt

- World Book Day is this Thursday 4th March
- Choose one of your favourite books or stories and see if any of the characters or objects from the scavenger hunt below can be found in your story.

Sticky Tape

- Really simple activity
- Use some masking tape (or any form of sticky/ coloured tape)
- Stick long strips over a table, ensure the ends are folded over so it is easy for the child to grab the tape.
- Watch them have fun and feel satisfied pulling all of the tape off.

Car track painting

- You will need different coloured paints on some plates, a couple of toy cars or vehicles and some plain A4 or A3 paper
- Dip the car wheels into the paint and enjoy making tracks on your paper.

Microwave mug cake

- Easy microwave cake mug recipe
- You will need-4 tblsp self-raising flour, 4 tblsp caster sugar, 2 tblsp cocoa powder, 1 medium egg, 3 tblsp milk, 3 tblsp vegetable oil or sunflower oil, a few drops of vanilla and 2 tblsp chocolate chips (optional)
- Put the flour, sugar and cocoa powder into a large mug.
- Next add the egg and whisk altogether in the mug with a fork.
- Then add the oil, vanilla essence and chocolate chips- Mix again.
- Place mug in microwave and cook for 1.5-2 minutes

Sensory tea

- For this activity you will need some teabags preferable herbal tea with a strong smell.
- Snip the edge of the tea bag and sprinkle from a height. Then spread the tea out with your hands as this will release more of the smells.
- Allow the children to explore the different aromas and textures of the different teas.
- You could also try this activity with different herbs.
